FOREWORD

It gives me immense pleasure to bring out the publication of the Compendium of Who's Who of Hon'ble Members of Punjab Provincial Assembly and Punjab Legislative Assembly (1937-2012) prepared by the Punjab Vidhan Sabha Secretariat, which is an epithet of information of its Members.

This publication gives a chance to know about the leaders of Punjab little closely, who have represented their people in the past as well as in the present and adorned the august House of Punjab Legislative Assembly. This book also contains data in respect of members from 1937 to 1957 which was not readily available and has been successfully gathered from the old debates, from the library etc. The officials of Punjab Vidhan Sabha Secretariat deserve thanks for compiling this book in a short time.

This publication will serve as a ready-reckoner of the representatives of the people of Punjab in the Punjab State Provincial Assembly and Punjab Legislative Assembly for its readers, researchers, academicians and legislators.

I proudly present this book as a medium of acknowledgement of the service rendered by the leaders to the people of Punjab.

Dr. Charnjit Singh Atwal
Hon'ble Speaker
Punjab Legislative Assembly

FOREWORD

I am delighted to learn that Punjab Vidhan Sabha Secretariat is bringing out a Compendium of "Who's Who" based on the life sketches of all the Members of the Punjab Vidhan Sabha since its inception in 1952.

I highly commend the initiative of the Speaker of the Vidhan Sabha to publish the Compendium. I also appreciate the efforts of the Punjab Vidhan Sabha Secretariat for this purpose. I am sure this publication will be of great significance especially for the legislators, officers and officials of the Punjab State Assembly besides researchers and academicians, as it will provide requisite information to them related to the life and works of all those members who adorned this august House through their benign presence from time to time.

I wish this publication all success.

Dr. Parkash Singh Badal
Hon'ble Chief Minister, Punjab

PREFACE

The 'Compendium of Who's Who of Members' was published for the first time in the year 2003 by this Secretariat. It is a veritable window to know about the brief life-sketches of all those Members who have participated in the democratic governance of the State and glorified this Institution with their valuable contributions.

The initial days of Punjab Vidhan Sabha connect it to Lahore, the capital of Punjab before Independence. After partition in August, 1947, out of a total of 175 Members of the Joint Punjab Legislative Assembly, 80 Members came to represent the constituencies which fell in the East Punjab on the Indian side of the border.

Dr. Charnjit Singh Atwal, Hon'ble Speaker, Punjab Legislative Assembly, has inspired us for bringing out the second edition of the Compendium by including profiles of all former and sitting MLAs since 1937. Though Punjab Vidhan Sabha did not have the record of its Hon'ble Members prior to 1957, it is only because of the Hon'ble Speaker's keen interest, inspiration and able guidance that we have been able to procure, compile and include the data of names, constituencies and brief profiles of Hon'ble Members of Punjab Legislative Assembly since 1937 upto date after collecting records from different sources, i.e. from the official website of Provincial Assembly of Punjab (Pakistan) Lahore, lists of Members appearing in the debates of the Legislative Assembly available in the Library of this Secretariat and also from the records of the Elections Department, Punjab.

The information regarding life-sketches of the Members compiled herein is based on the details furnished by the Hon'ble Members themselves, and the data pertaining to the elections has been collected from the Election Department, Punjab.

The compilation of such a voluminous information has been a mammoth task. A dedicated team of officers and the staff of this Sabha Secretariat has contributed a lot in systematically updating the data contained in the Compendium. I would like to thank them all for their effort in finalizing the Compendium in a time-bound manner.

It is hoped that this edition of the Compendium will be very useful for the Hon'ble Members, researchers and academicians.

The compilation of this Compendium is a human task. In spite of our best efforts, mistakes may creep in this publication. The Sabha Secretariat would gratefully welcome the suggestions/corrections for further improvement of this publication.

CHANDIGARH

SHASHI LAKHANPAL MISHRA
SECRETARY.
